THE RECEIVER'S MOTION FOR AUTHORIZATION TO PAY COSTS TO SPECIAL COUNSEL

Receiver Daniel S. Newman, not individually, but solely in his capacity as the Court-appointed receiver ("Receiver") for Founding Partners Capital Management Company; Founding Partners Stable-Value Fund, L.P.; Founding Partners Stable-Value Fund II, L.P.; Founding Partners Global Fund, Ltd.; and Founding Partners Hybrid-Value Fund, L.P. (collectively, the "Receivership Entities"), files this Motion for Authorization to Pay Costs ("Motion") to Beus Gilbert McGroder PLLC ("Beus") and Grossman Roth Yaffa Cohen, P.A. ("Grossman") (together, "Special Counsel"), and requests that this Court enter an Order authorizing him to pay Special Counsel its unreimbursed costs, with interest, incurred during the litigation against Mayer Brown LLP in Broward County, Florida (the "Broward Litigation").

The Receiver respectfully requests that this Court authorize the Receiver to pay Special Counsel its unreimbursed costs, with interest, pursuant to two Court-approved agreements.¹ For the last ten years, the Receiver has periodically sought approval of Special Counsel's incurred expenses, pursuant to the terms of Beus's retainer agreement. This Motion seeks approval to pay Special Counsel all costs not yet reimbursed, including costs incurred before and after the Court-approved addendum, all of which are subject to 10% interest per annum, as discussed below.²

The requested payment, if approved, will be made from the First Settlement Payment, which Mayer Brown LLP made to the Receiver following the expiration of the appeals period for the Court's Final Settlement Approval and Bar Order Regarding Receiver's Litigation With Mayer Brown ("Approval and Bar Order") and the February 12, 2021 Partial Final Judgment ("Final Judgment").

I. RETENTION OF RECEIVER, SPECIAL COUNSEL, AND APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT WITH MAYER BROWN LLP

A. The SEC's Motion

On April 20, 2009, the SEC filed its Complaint [D.E. 1] and its Emergency Motion to Appoint a Receiver [D.E. 3]. This Court granted the SEC's Emergency Motion to Appoint a Receiver on the same date. [D.E. 9].

In its Complaint, the SEC sought to permanently enjoin Founding Partners and its principal William L. Gunlicks from violating antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and a December 2007 SEC cease and desist order against them. [D.E. at 1]. The SEC also sought to protect and preserve approximately $550 million of investor assets at risk. Id. On May 13, 2009, the SEC filed a Motion to Appoint a Replacement Receiver. [D.E. 71].

² Interest is only sought on Beus's costs, not Grossman's, pursuant to the Court-approved retainer agreement for Beus and the Court-approved addendum to that retainer.

B. The Court Appoints Daniel Newman, Esq., as Replacement Receiver

On May 20, 2009, the Court entered its Order Appointing Replacement Receiver and appointed Daniel Newman, Esq., as Receiver for the Receivership [D.E. 73, the “Receivership Order”]. The Order placed the Receiver in charge of the Receivership Entities. Id. at 2-3. Pursuant to the Receivership Order, the Receiver was granted “full and exclusive power, duty, and authority to: administer and manage the business affairs, funds, assets, choses in action and any other property of Founding Partners and the Founding Partners Relief Defendants; marshal and safeguard all of the assets of Founding Partners and the Founding Partners Relief Defendants; and take whatever actions are necessary for the protection of investors.” Id. at 1-2. The Receivership Order required the Receiver to, among other things:

- Take immediate possession of and administer the assets of the Receivership Entities;
- Investigate the way the affairs of the Receivership Entities were conducted;
- Institute such actions and legal proceedings, for the benefit and on behalf of the Receivership Entities and their investors and other creditors as the Receiver deems necessary;
- Employ professionals as the Receiver deems necessary and pay their reasonable compensation;
- Engage persons in the Receiver’s discretion to assist the Receiver in carrying out the Receiver’s duties and responsibilities;
- Defend, compromise or settle legal actions in which the Receivership Entities or the Receiver is a party; and
- Make payments and disbursements from the funds and assets taken into control as necessary in discharging the Receiver’s duties.

Id. at 3-8.

C. The Receiver Retains Special Counsel

On August 18, 2010, the Receiver obtained Court approval to retain Beus as Special Counsel (“Order Authorizing Retention and Payment”). [D.E. 246]. As part of the Court-approved terms of Beus’s retention, Beus and the Receiver agreed: “Because it is not reasonably practicable for [Receiver] to directly pay [] costs, charges, and expenses necessary to pursue to the Matter, [Beus] may advance such costs, charges, and expenses. [Receiver] agrees that any outstanding balances for costs and expenses not paid within ninety (90) days of receipt of [Beus]’s bill will accrue an interest charge at the Arizona statutory rate of ten percent (10%) per annum until paid.” [D.E. 242-2, §2.3(d)].

D. The Receiver Sues Mayer Brown

On December 30, 2010, the Receiver, represented by Special Counsel, sued Mayer Brown LLP (“Mayer Brown”), which was former counsel to Receivership Entities, along with the Receivership Entities’ former auditor Ernst & Young (“E&Y”), for malpractice, among other claims. The lawsuit was filed in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida (previously defined as the Broward Litigation). Originally, the Receiver periodically sought reimbursement of Special Counsel’s costs as part of fee applications, which were approved by the Court.

E. Beus Agrees to Advance Costs and Assume Risk of Non-Recovery of Expert Witness Related Costs in The Court-Approved Addendum

Over time, the Receiver and Special Counsel became concerned of inadequate funds in the receivership to pay certain costs, including expert witness fees, through the end of the Broward Litigation and action against E&Y. In order to permit Special Counsel to continue to prosecute the claims for the benefit of the investors, without having to raise money for costs through third-party financing, which, among other things, could compromise the recovery and control over the litigation, Beus made a very significant concession. Beus offered to advance expert witness and consultant costs and not seek reimbursement unless and until there was a recovery, charging 10% interest, such that no costs would be reimbursed without a recovery. In July 2019, the Receiver and Beus agreed to a Court-approved addendum of Beus's retainer agreement memorializing these terms. [D.E. 496; 497]. The addendum provided that Beus would advance costs and expenses for all expert witnesses and consultants without reimbursement unless and until it was successful in the Broward Litigation. Id. The Court-approved addendum provides that Beus is entitled to 10% interest per annum on these costs, as well. Id. In this Motion, the Receiver also seeks leave to reimburse Beus for these expenses related to the Broward Litigation and as to the proceedings against Ernst & Young LLP.

F. Approval of Mayer Brown Settlement

The Receiver and Mayer Brown agreed to a settlement in principle. In connection with those discussions, the parties sought to stay the Broward Litigation on July 15, 2020. After months of negotiation preparing the settlement documents, the Receiver filed his Motion for Approval of Settlement Agreement with Mayer Brown on November 3, 2020 ("Motion for Approval"). [D.E. 508]. The Court held a hearing on the Motion for Approval on February 3, 2021.

On February 5, 2021, the Court entered its Approval and Bar Order. [D.E. 527]. Pursuant to the Court-approved settlement, the Receiver will obtain $390 million, beginning with a First Settlement Payment of $370 million, and with interest on part of the deferred payments of the balance, over a period of four years. [Id., p. 3]. On February 10, 2021, the Court in the Broward Litigation entered a Final Judgment pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, dismissing the Receiver's claims against Mayer Brown. On February 12, 2021, the Court entered its Partial Final Judgment [D.E. 528]. At present the $370 million First Settlement Payment is being held in an account established by the Receiver.

II. REQUEST FOR COSTS

The Receiver and Special Counsel, assisted by experts and consultants, worked diligently to fulfill the Receiver's obligations and prosecute the Broward Litigation. The Receiver's recovery of $390 million is an extraordinary result that would not have been possible without representation by Special Counsel and, in particular, Beus's willingness to advance millions of dollars in costs for the benefit of the Receivership (a significant amount of which were non-recourse and would only be reimbursed if it was successful in the Broward Litigation). The Receivership was not in financial position to advance these costs itself.

The Receiver's Motion for Approval and the Court's Approval and Bar Order discuss the Broward Litigation, the necessity of retaining Special Counsel, and the results obtained by the Receiver in detail. Specifically, the Court's Approval and Bar Order notes that the $390 million Settlement Amount will allow for a substantial distribution to Approved Claimants after payment of creditor claims, fees and costs, and litigation reserves. [D.E. 527, p. 7]. The Court also found the Settlement was "reached following an extensive investigation of the facts and active litigation of claims and defenses, and that it resulted from vigorous, good-faith, arm's-length negotiations involving experienced and competent counsel representing both Parties, including two formal mediations conducted over a period of years." [Id., p. 7].

The Receiver respectfully requests leave to pay Special Counsel its unreimbursed costs, with interest, in accordance with this Court's prior Order Authorizing Retention and Payment and the Court-approved addendum. This amount totals $2,496,523.44 in the aggregate ("Total Cost Award"). The Total Cost Award is broken down as follows: (1) $2,467,986.71 in unreimbursed costs to Beus, which includes $294,090.71 in interest; and (2) $28,536.73 in unreimbursed costs to Grossman.

Copies of records reflecting the costs sought in this Motion are attached as Exhibit A (Beus's costs) and Exhibit B (Grossman's costs).

III. THIS MOTION SHOULD BE APPROVED

A. Court's Orders

As discussed above, the Court already approved the retention of Special Counsel and its entitlement to cost reimbursements. See Order Authorizing Retention and Payment. [D.E. 246]. The Court also approved the addendum to the Receiver's retainer agreement with Beus, which related to cost reimbursements, and approved of the interest rate. [D.E. 497]. Moreover, the Court acknowledged Special Counsel's entitlement to costs in its Approval and Bar Order. [D.E. 527, pp. 7, 25] (acknowledging that Special Counsel's costs will be paid from the Settlement Amount).

B. Relevant Authority

The Receiver's contingency contract with Special Counsel, which provides for reimbursement of costs and interest thereon, as approved by the Court, is valid. Valid contingency contracts are enforced under Florida law.³ Not only was Special Counsel's fee contingent on recovery, but so to were a substantial amount of the costs sought through this Motion. As described above, Beus agreed to advance expert witness fees and expenses on a non-recourse basis.

³ The law is clear that "the attorney, who has obtained the contracted contingency, is entitled to his stated fees under the contingency fee contract and not quantum meruit." Zaklama v. Mount Sinai Med. Ctr., 906 F.2d 650, 653 (11th Cir. 1990) (enforcing a 50% contingency agreement; "[a] client may not accept the benefits of a valid contingency fee contract and subsequently contest his obligations thereunder"). Florida "courts uniformly declare that once the contingency (the recovery) has been obtained, the attorney is entitled to the contingency fee under the terms of the contingency contract." Eakin v. United Tech. Corp., 998 F. Supp. 1422, 1435 (S.D. Fla. 1998) (rejecting claim that earned contingency fee was excessive); Cooper v. Ford & Sinclair, P.A., 888 So. 2d 683, 690 (Fla. 4th DCA 2004) ("The contingency requirement had been met and the attorneys were entitled to rely upon the provisions of the written contingency fee contract to determine the amount of their fee."); King v. Nelson, 362 So. 2d 727, 728 (Fla. 2d DCA 1978) (rejecting argument to limit compensation to quantum meruit where plaintiff agreed to a settlement before discharging his attorneys); see also Eakin v. United Tech. Corp., 998 F. Supp. 1422, 1429 (S.D. Fla. 1998) ("If Acosta obtained the contingency, he will be entitled to his contingency fee under the contract."); Town of Medley v. Kimball, 358 So. 2d 1145, 1146-47 (Fla. 3d DCA 1978) (affirming enforcement of contingency fee agreement as "clear, concise and unambiguous").

Under governing law, a receiver is entitled to reimbursement of costs that represent “actual and necessary expenses.” F.T.C. v. Worldwide Info Services, Inc., 6:14-CV-8-ORL-41DAB, 2015 WL 144389, at *4 (M.D. Fla. Jan. 12, 2015). The costs must be reasonable and relate to the preservation of the receivership estate. Id. Courts frequently review the *Johnson*⁴ factors to determine whether a court-appointed receiver’s fees and costs are “reasonable.” See e.g. SEC v. Creative Capital Consortium, 08-civ-81565, 2102 WL 12916212, *1 (S.D. Fla. November 30, 2012); SEC v. Pension Fund of America, L.C., 05-civ-20863, 2008 WL 4999243 *2 (S.D. Fla. November 19, 2008). In particular, the following Johnson factors are relevant to the determination whether the costs sought are reasonable: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the question involved; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) whether the [cost] is fixed or contingent; (5) the amount involved and the results obtained; and (6) the experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services. The Receiver respectfully suggests that a consideration of these factors shows the costs sought are reasonable. See also Securities & Exchange Comm’n v. Elliot, 953 F. 2d 1560, 1577 (11th Cir. 1992) (finding that a receiver who “reasonably and diligently discharges his duties” is entitled to compensation).

1. Time and Labor Required

Special Counsel expended considerable time and effort to perform the work necessary to obtain the settlement with Mayer Brown and corresponding $390 million recovery. This necessarily involved advancing significant costs.

⁴ Johnson v. Georgia H’way Exp., Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974).

The Receiver's Motion for Approval and the Court's Approval and Bar Order discuss the Broward Litigation in detail. [D.E. 527, pp. 6-7]. Beus's and Grossman's records reflect that they have invested more than 100,000 hours (including more than 25,000 hours from the most senior and name partners in both firms) and more than $35 million in recorded billable time in the litigation to date, with no promise of payment except from a successful resolution of the Receiver's claims. During that time, Beus advanced millions of dollars in costs, a substantial amount of which was non-recourse and not collectible unless there was a successful conclusion to the Mayer Brown Litigation.

In approving the Settlement with Mayer Brown, the Court found the Broward Litigation was "hard-fought and active." Id. The Receiver reported, and the Court accepted, that there were "four different appeals to the Fourth District Court of Appeal, three of them concerning the claims against Mayer Brown, and extensive discovery and motion practice." Id. There were hearings on "many discovery motions and six separate motions for partial summary judgment," four of which were decided before the Broward Litigation was stayed. Id. Discovery was also "extensive," with millions of documents having been produced by parties and non-parties, and dozens of depositions. Id. Discovery was so contentious that a special master was appointed to handle the parties' issues. [D.E. 508, p. 30]. The Receiver and Mayer Brown also "engaged in two formal mediations in an effort to resolve" the Broward Litigation. [D.E. 527. Pp. 6-7]. Neither of the mediations were successful, and the parties "active[ly] and vigorous[ly] litigat[ed] for more than a year and a half after the conclusion of the second mediation." Id. Of course, significant costs accompanied these events.

In summary, Special Counsel incurred significant costs related to:

- Motion practice and general case management in the Broward Litigation, which was extensive and included substantive summary judgment briefing, described above;
- Addressing and responding to discovery in the Broward Litigation, including hundreds of requests for admission and written interrogatories;

- Representing the Receiver in four different appeals to the Fourth District Court of Appeal, three of which related to claims against Mayer Brown;
- The production and review of millions of documents produced by parties and non-parties;
- Preparing for and attending dozens of depositions (including the depositions of many non-party witnesses), many over multiple days, and some of them very contentious, requiring the involvement of a special master and the presence of multiple attorneys on both sides;
- Engaging in two formal mediations in an effort to resolve the Broward Litigation, neither of which resulted in a settlement; and
- Retaining and preparing expert witnesses for various stages of the litigation and the mediations.

Additional detailed descriptions of Special Counsel's time and work in the Broward Litigation can be found in the Receiver's various reports to the Court. [see, e.g., D.E. 500 (Eleventh Report); 493 (Tenth Status Report)].

2. Complexity of the Matter

The Court has already considered these factors and found that the Broward Litigation was a complex and time-consuming litigation. [D.E. 527, pp. 7-8]. In support of its Approval and Bar Order, the Court found, among other things, “(i) significant issues exist as to the merits and value of the claims asserted against Mayer Brown by the Receiver; [and] (ii) such claims raise complex and difficult issues of law and fact that would require a substantial amount of time and expense to litigate, with uncertainty regarding whether such claims would be successful[.]” [Id.] For that reason, the Court approved the Settlement and entered the Approval and Bar Order and entered the Final Judgment. The Receiver submits that the Broward Litigation was unusually difficult and challenging, having been litigated for over ten years. Given the issues presented in the case, Special Counsel had to advance costs to retain and prepare a significant number of credentialed expert witnesses. The Receiver obtained a successful result in this litigation in part because of these persuasive and credentialed expert witnesses, who Special Counsel advanced costs to retain. The Receiver could not afford to advance the costs necessary to retain these experts, and retention of less-credentialed expert witnesses likely would have negatively impacted the ultimate recovery.

3. Claimants' Informed Consents

The Receiver and Special Counsel kept approved claimants fully informed during the settlement process. This included the Receiver and Special Counsel hosting numerous telephone conferences to explain the results to be obtained in the Settlement, if it were supported by approved claimants. Thus, before holders of approved claims were asked to submit consents to the Settlement, the Receiver and Special Counsel told them what Special Counsel's fee and cost arrangement was and the impact that would have on the amount of funds for distribution. With this knowledge, approximately 98% of the holders of approved claims gave the Receiver executed consents, and no one objected to the Settlement.

4. The Other Factors

Special Counsel assumed a substantial risk of nonpayment, of both fees and costs, if they were not successful in obtaining a substantial recovery for the Receivership Estate.

When the Receiver obtained approval to hire Special Counsel, the Receiver did not have the resources or means to pursue the Broward Litigation, except with a contingency fee arrangement. Special Counsel was extraordinarily flexible in its representation of the Receiver, agreeing to forego years of expense reimbursements until after the Settlement was approved, and covering millions of dollars of expert witness related costs without reimbursement unless a successful result was obtained in the Broward Litigation.

These costs were reasonably incurred. For example, Beus represents that virtually all airfares for which it seeks reimbursement were booked at the lower of the price for a coach or first-class ticket. Indeed, the extraordinary results obtained—the largest receivership settlement of its kind that is known to the Receiver and Special Counsel— likely would not have been achieved absent the expenditures for which reimbursement are sought through this Motion.

CONCLUSION

Special Counsel seeks reimbursement of actual costs that were necessary not only to the preservation of the Receivership Estate, but to the recovery of $390 million in funds for the benefit of defrauded investors. Considering the time and labor required (and resultant expenses), the complexity of the matter, the recovery obtained, the risk Beus took in advancing costs on a non-recourse basis, and the Court's prior approval of Special Counsel's retainer and the addendum thereto, the amount sought for reimbursement is reasonable. For these reasons, the Receiver, Daniel S. Newman, respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order authorizing the payment of $2,496,523.44 to Special Counsel for reimbursement of costs and interest.

CERTIFICATE OF GOOD FAITH CONFERENCE

The Receiver and the SEC met and conferred in good faith on several occasions concerning the relief requested in this Motion. The SEC objects to payment of certain costs and interest sought in the Motion and will be filing a response to the Motion.
